Lewis was a United Empire Loyalist and escaped to New Brunswick in 1783. First to Kennebecasis then to Millstream, Kings County.

Lewis and his brother Oliver served in the 2nd Battalion New Jersey Volunteers, and British Militia Unit. Along with Lewis & Oliver there was a James Frazee of Elizabethtown Essex Co. New Jersey. All three were mentioned in an advertisement from the Court of Common Pleas in 1778 for joining in with the British Army and other treasonable practices.

During or prior The American Revolution, Lewis & Oliver, his brother, Left the 13 colonies and went to Kennebecasis, New Brunswick, Canada. This is where Lewis petitions the authorities for a lot in 1788

After Lewis was marries to Catherine Thorne, they lived in Staten Island for a time. (pg264 Frazee Ancestry)
