

Descendants of
Ralph and Bridget McCORMICK
1830 - 2014

Generation No. 1

1. Raphael (Ralph¹) McCormick: b. 1804/05 in Ireland; d. September 18, 1893; married Bridget McGinley, b. 1806/07 in Ireland; d. March 25, 1879.

Census records indicate that Ralph and Bridget McCormick left Ireland and immigrated to Canada in 1831. These records do not conclusively give dates of birth for either Ralph or Bridget but suggest that the couple were born in the early 1800s and that Ralph was 2 years older than Bridget. The Saint John Globe, The Daily Telegraph and The Daily News (Saint John newspapers in the 1870s) all reported that Bridget died at age 72, on Tuesday, March 25, 1879 at her home on Kennebecasis Island. Her funeral was held 2 days later. Ralph's death was reported as follows in the September 20, 1893 issue of the Saint John "Daily Sun": "d. Kennebecasis Island (Kings Co.) Sept. 18th, Ralph McCormick, age 88 years. Funeral from his residence this day, Wednesday at 11 o'clock. Ferry steamer 'Maggie Miller' will leave Milledgeville at 10:30 o'clock to attend the funeral."

By deed, dated April 12, 1843, Ralph received 50 acres of land on Kennebecasis Island. Ralph's brother, John, had received 30 acres of land on the same island in December 1837. Because of the presence of the McCormicks, Kennebecasis Island was often called "McCormick's Island". "McCormick House", overlooking McCormick's Cove on the south side of the island, dates from the late 1830s and was home to Ralph and Bridget and their children.

Kennebecasis Island, in Kings County, New Brunswick, was for many years part of Westfield Parish. The Milkish Channel separates the Island from the Kingston Peninsula. The Island is also a short distance by ferry from the City of Saint John. The names "Kennebecasis", "Kings", "Westfield", "Milkish" and "Saint John" all appear in archival records (birth, marriage, death, newspaper articles) related to Ralph McCormick and his descendants.

Ralph and John's sister, Grace, and her husband, George McGarrigle (also spelled McGeragle), lived near Kennebecasis Island on the Kingston Peninsula, near the village of Milkish. George and Grace immigrated to New Brunswick from Ireland in 1831. In the 1851 New Brunswick census, George's age is recorded as 57 and Grace's as 45. They had 9 children, born between 1832 and 1850.

Children of Ralph McCormick and Bridget McGinley

2. i. Samuel² McCormick: b. 1830/31 in Ireland; d. November 26, 1900

Records do not establish an exact date of birth for Samuel. However, the January 1861 Canada Census records Samuel's age as 29 and indicates that he was born in Ireland and immigrated to Canada with his parents in May 1831. Therefore, Samuel must have been born in early 1831. A document in the New Brunswick Provincial Archives (hereinafter "the archives") shows his date of death as November 26, 1900 and his age at the time as 67. However, this is probably an error and his actual age at death was likely 69.

- ii. Patrick McCormick: b. 1835/36; d. April 17, 1892

The Saint John "Daily Sun" reported that Patrick died on April 17, 1892, age 56, and that those who wished to attend his funeral could board the steamer "Clifton" leaving Indiantown at 9:30 am on the morning of Wednesday, April 20. The April 21 issue of the newspaper reported as follows: "The funeral of the late Patrick McCORMICK, brother of Hugh J. McCORMICK, took place at the Chapel yesterday. About 150 persons went up from the city in the steamer 'Clifton' to attend the funeral. The boat stopped at McCormick's cove and took the body on board and proceeded to Chapel Grove. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Father Wynn. The remains were interred in the Chapel Grove burial ground." However, records for St. Bridget's cemetery in Chapel Grove do not list Patrick McCormick as being buried there. Patrick was single.

- iii. John McCormick: drowned off McCormick's Cove before 1851 (not listed in 1851 census; date of birth is unknown although he was younger than his brother Samuel).

3. iv. Ralph² McCormick: b. June 9, 1839; d. January 5, 1914

- v. Ellen McCormick: b. May 10, 1841; d. July 24, 1916 (never married)

4. vi. Catherine² McCormick: b. 1845; d. December 27, 1914

- vii. Mary Ann McCormick: b. 1847/48; d. August 3, 1890; m. William J. Woods (b. January 1, 1844; d. March 3, 1924) on March 13, 1875 at the Cathedral. Mary Ann and William had no children.

5. viii. Charles A.² McCormick: b. July 18, 1849; d. July 13, 1922

- ix. Hugh J. McCormick: b. late February 1854 (baptised on March 14, 1854 at about 3 weeks of age); d. August 28, 1910; m. Sarah Waddell (b. August 18, 1864; d. September 22, 1932) on June 29, 1887 at St. Peter's Church (married by Rev. Fr. Wynn). Hugh and Sarah had no children.

Hugh McCormick was a speed skater who skated professionally between 1883 and 1895. In 1883 he became New Brunswick champion and by 1885 was both Maritime and North American champion. In 1887 he set world records for distances of 1, 3, 4, 6, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 14 miles. In 1890 Hugh became world professional champion after defeating the reigning world champion, Axel Paulsen of Norway, in a series of races in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Hugh was elected to the New Brunswick "Sports Hall of Fame" in 1982.

Hugh married Sarah (Sadie) Waddell, the only daughter of James Waddell of Kings County, on June 29, 1887. The Saint John "Daily Telegraph" reported on the wedding in its June 30, 1887 issue: "Hugh J. McCORMICK, champion skater, was quietly married yesterday morn. in St. Peter's church to Miss Waddell."

Sarah's family owned and operated a saw mill, furniture factory and hotel (the "Willows") at Reed's Point on the Kingston Peninsula side of the Kennebecasis River, opposite Gondola Point. Some of the trim on "McCormick House" was produced at the Waddell furniture factory. For a time, Hugh and Sarah managed the "Willows". They later moved to Sussex and then to Saint John where they operated the "Three Mile House" hotel on the eastern edge of the City. Hugh died in August 1910. Twelve years later, on September 26, 1922, Sarah married Charles Thomas Gallagher (b. September 15, 1885; d. June 4, 1927). Charles was an artist who was born in Boston, MA. Sarah died in September 1932.

- x. Several children, including Bridget, Thomas and James, died in infancy.

Generation No. 2

- 2. Samuel² McCormick (Ralph¹): b. 1830/31 in Ireland; d. November 26, 1900; married Mary Letitia McDonald (b. 1841 in Ireland; d. October 31, 1911) on August 16, 1864.

Children of Samuel McCormick and Mary Letitia McDonald

- 6. i. Raphael (Ralph) Alexander³ McCormick: b. May 24, 1865; d. November 3, 1942
- ii. Elizabeth Ann McCormick: b. June 1867; d. December 13, 1877
- 7. iii. Samuel³ McCormick: b. July 19, 1869; d. February 19, 1925
- iv. Charles McCormick: b. July 25, 1871; d. January 13, 1959; ordained as a priest in the Redemptorist (CSsR) Order on December 6, 1901
- v. John Edward McCormick: b. October 29, 1873; d. August 20, 1947; m. Anastasia Gaynes (b. January 28, 1889; d. June 29, 1962) on June 15, 1910
- vi. Loretta (Laura) Bridget McCormick: b. October 9, 1877; d. December 31, 1956; m. (1) Thomas J. Buckley (b. January 20, 1877; d. September 23,

- 1927) on June 20, 1905; (2) James Edward Merrick (b. May 20, 1875; d. October 23, 1958) on November 4, 1942
- vii. Hugh A. McCormick: b. December 2, 1881; d. October 25, 1953 (never married)

Sam and Letitia lived on Spar Cove Road in the Pokiok area of Saint John's North End. Sam and his sons worked at the nearby Stetson & Cutler saw mill.

3. Ralph² McCormick (Ralph¹): b. June 9, 1839; d. January 5, 1914; married (1) Catherine (Furlong) McGinnis (b. February 29, 1852; d. April 6, 1904) on January 11, 1875 at the Cathedral and (2) Sarah J. Morris (b. 1852; d. July 4, 1915) on November 3, 1907 in Boston, MA.

Children of Ralph McCormick and Catherine McGinnis

8. i. William Paul³ McCormick: b. October 21, 1875; d. January 17, 1942
ii. John Thomas McCormick: b. January 14, 1878; d. June 10, 1893

The June 13, 1893 issue of the "Saint John Globe" reported the following: "d. 10th inst., at Kennebecasis Island (Kings Co.) of acute meningitis of the brain, John Thomas McCormick second s/o Ralph McCORMICK and Catherine McCormick, age 15 years 6 mos."

9. iii. Mary Bridget³ McCormick: b. March 17, 1880; d. May 20, 1964
10. iv. Charles George³ McCormick: b. July 9, 1884; d. April 9, 1965
11. v. James Ralph³ McCormick: b. June 6, 1886; d. March 16, 1968
12. vi. Teresa Elizabeth³ McCormick: b. January 5, 1894; d. January 2, 1975

Ralph and Catherine's marriage was announced in the January 12, 1875 issue of the Saint John "Morning Freeman" where Catherine is referred to as "Cassie Furlong". Catherine's name appears in the 1871 Canada Census where her age is given as 18 and she is listed as living with her family in Saint John's Sydney Ward. Her parents were Tom and Elizabeth Furlong, and Tom was a "tavern keeper". However, the marriage registration certificates for Catherine's children all show her maiden name as "McGinnis" rather than "Furlong". The only reference to "Furlong" in these documents is where Bridget gives her mother's name as "Catherine (McGinnis) Furlong" and where Charles has written "Catherine Furlong McGinnis". No documents have been found which explain the origin of "McGinnis" for Catherine's maiden name. Her death registration in "the archives" records her married name as "McCormick" and her maiden name as "Furlong".

Ralph purchased land on Kennebecasis Island adjacent to that of his father. Based on available property record information, it appears that Ralph owned as much as 100 acres on the south side of the Island, east of his father's property. After their marriage, Ralph and Catherine lived on Spar Cove Road in the Pokiok area of Saint John's North End near Ralph's brother, Samuel. However, by at least 1881 (see Canada Census), Ralph and Catherine were living on Kennebecasis Island and they lived there throughout the 1880s and 1890s. Ralph appears twice in the 1901 Canada Census records - he is listed as living with his family in Saint John's North End and also as living on Kennebecasis Island. The census documents record Ralph's occupation as "dock builder".

After Catherine's death in 1904, Ralph left New Brunswick to live in Boston. There is no evidence that any of Ralph's children went with him. In Boston, on November 3, 1907, Ralph married Sarah J. Morris. Sarah was the daughter of Edward Morris and Bridget Kerr, both Irish immigrants, and she was about 55 years of age at the time of her marriage. The marriage document in the Massachusetts archives indicates that Ralph was marrying for the second time while it was Sarah's first marriage. Ralph's occupation is recorded as "dock builder".

Ralph returned to Saint John in June of 1910, possibly to attend the wedding of his daughter, Bridget. Sarah did not accompany him. Ralph seems to have remained in New Brunswick after 1910 since at the time of the 1911 Canada Census, he was again living on Kennebecasis Island. In 1911, Ralph's son, William, was working in Newcastle, New Brunswick, while his other children, Charles, James and Teresa, were living with their sister Bridget and her husband, John Griffith, at 285 Main St. in Saint John. Ralph died in 1914 and is buried at St. Bridget's cemetery in Chapel Grove, not far from Kennebecasis Island. Ralph's second wife, Sarah, died in Boston on July 4, 1915.

4. Catherine² McCormick (Ralph¹): b. 1845; d. December 27, 1914; married William E. Leonard (b. 1846; d. January 16, 1917) on May 1, 1873.

Children of Catherine McCormick and William Leonard

13. i. Charles Edward³ Leonard: b. August 3, 1875
14. ii. Mary Ann³ Leonard: b. December 22, 1876; d. February 3, 1939

5. Charles A.² McCormick (Ralph¹): b. July 18, 1849; d. July 13, 1922; married Mary Elizabeth Collins (b. June 26, 1862; d. September 23, 1946) at the Cathedral on October 31, 1883 (Rev. C. Collins presided). Mary Elizabeth was the daughter of Thomas Collins and Margaret Winchester.

Children of Charles A. McCormick and Mary Elizabeth Collins

- i. Charles Patrick McCormick: b. August 15, 1884; d. June 10, 1893

The June 13, 1893 issue of the Saint John "Daily Telegraph" reported Charles' death: "Charles, the 16 year old s/o Charles McCORMICK and nephew of Hugh McCORMICK, died suddenly on Sunday. He went to Milkish on Saturday to fish and while there Sunday was stricken with the cramps. Hugh McCormick rode for a physician with all speed but before he returned the lad had expired. He was interred from a relative's residence at the North End yesterday".

The article gives Charles' age as 16, but he could not have been more than 9. Charles may have died from a ruptured appendix.

- ii. Emily Ann McCormick: b. January 15, 1887; not referred to in "the archives" or any census records - likely died at a very young age.
- iii. Unknown, died in infancy
- iv. Francis Thomas McCormick: b. January 8, 1890; d. May 30, 1947 (never married)
- 15. v. Mary Elizabeth³ McCormick: b. February 18, 1892; d. April 19, 1966
- 16. vi. Ellen Ann³ McCormick: b. March 3, 1893; d. September 5, 1941
- 17. vii. Marguerite Emily³ McCormick: b. May 31, 1894; d. April 6, 1983
- viii. Catherine (Kitty) McCormick: b. May 3, 1896; d. February 24, 1977 (never married)
- ix. Marion Bridget McCormick: b. November 10, 1897; d. August 10, 1961
- x. Mary Alice McCormick: b. September 27, 1900; d. August 19, 1962; m. Charles A. Murray
- xi. Raphael (Ralph) McCormick: b. February 14, 1902; d. July 17, 1970 (never married)
- 18. xii. Mary Lillian³ McCormick: b. November 22, 1903; d. November 22, 1967
- xiii. Mary Ruth McCormick: b. July 29, 1906; d. August 30, 1931 (never married)

Charles, Elizabeth and their children were the last family to live year-round at "McCormick House". They were still living on Kennebecasis Island in 1911 when the Canada Census was taken (March 31) but within a few years had left the island and moved to 3 Harvey St. in Saint John's North End. They were living on Harvey St. in 1919 and 1920 when Marguerite, Ellen and Elizabeth were married and in 1922 when Charles passed away. The 1923 Saint John City Directory contains a listing on Harvey St. for Elizabeth McCormick and her children, Frank, Catherine and Alice. Most of the McCormick children eventually left New Brunswick for the United States. Catherine, Marion, Alice, Lillian and Ruth immigrated to the U.S. in the 1920s. At the time of the 1930 U.S. census, the five McCormick sisters were living together in Cambridge, MA. Frank and Ralph immigrated to the U.S. in June 1941. Ralph lived for many years in Poughkeepsie, NY.

Generation No. 3

- 6. Ralph Alexander³ McCormick (Samuel², Ralph¹): b. May 24, 1865; d. November 3, 1942 in Somerville, MA; married Mary Elizabeth Gilbert (b. September 4, 1868; d. October 18, 1949) on January 7, 1891 at St. Peter's Church (Fr. Donohue, CSsR presided). Mary Elizabeth was the daughter of William Gilbert and Mary Donnelly.

- i. Raphael (Ralph) McCormick: b. January 31, 1892; d. April 29, 1892
- ii. Mary Mabel McCormick: b. July 8, 1893; d. December 21, 1894
19. iii. Gerarda Josephine⁴ McCormick: b. October 16, 1895; d. Dec. 13, 1983
20. iv. John Edward⁴ McCormick: b. July 30, 1897; d. October 29, 1948
21. v. Stephen Laurence⁴ McCormick: b. August 1, 1899; d. May 28, 1959
22. vi. Charles Andrew⁴ McCormick: b. November 5, 1901; d. June 15, 1968
- vii. Frederick Joseph McCormick: b. March 15, 1904; d. February 26, 1986
- viii. Mary Lillian McCormick: b. April 10, 1906; d. October 27, 1985 in Rockport, MA; m. Parker Couch Rowell (b. August 29, 1903; d. June 3, 1982 in Essex, MA)
- ix. Mary Ellen (Mae) McCormick: b. May 16, 1908 d. July 2001; m. John Lester Ketchum (b. May 31, 1911; d. August 2, 2002) on July 4, 1942 (no children)
- x. Harold Gerard McCormick: b. August 13, 1910; d. October 25, 1980

Ralph and Mary lived at 25 Bellevue St. in the Pokiok area of Saint John's North End. At the time of the 1921 Canada Census, Ralph and his sons, Lawrence and Charles, were working at the nearby Stetson & Cutler saw mill. Ralph and Mary and many of their children immigrated to the United States later in the 1920s. Most settled in, or around, Boston, MA. Ralph, Mary, Lillian, Mary Ellen and Harold are listed in both the 1930 and 1940 United States Census as living together in Somerville, MA.

7. Samuel³ McCormick (Samuel², Ralph¹): b. July 19, 1869; d. February 19, 1925; married Annie Blanche McInnes (b. March 14, 1874 in Burton, NB; d. October 23, 1931) on September 25, 1905. Samuel died following a heart attack on King St. in Saint John.

Sam grew up in the Pokiok area of Saint John's North End. After he and Annie were married, they lived at 151 Chesley St. Annie was still living there at the time of her death in 1931.

- iv. Margaret Josephine Leonard: b. October 12, 1911; d. September 16, 1912
- v. Charles Joseph Leonard: b. July 11, 1913

Margaret was the daughter of William McBriarty and Bridget McDermott. She was from Springfield, King's County, New Brunswick. Charles and Margaret were married in Boston in 1903. However, they did not immigrate to the United States until 1926. Between 1903 and 1926 they lived in Saint John, where all of their children were born. In 1930, Charles and his family were living in Watertown, MA.

14. Mary Ann³ (Minnie) Leonard (Catherine², Ralph¹): b. December 22, 1876; d. February 3, 1939 in Cambridge, MA; married Michael James Coady (b. October 20, 1874 in Gloucester County, NB; d. December 9, 1941 in Cambridge, MA) on September 26, 1904.
